

Assistant Credit Analyst

Stillman Bank currently has a career opportunity available in our Stillman Valley office for an Assistant Credit Analyst. This position will work closely with our Credit Analyst and our commercial lenders to identify and mitigate potential credit risks through detailed underwriting analysis and evaluation of financial records. This individual must have good familiarity with financial statements and records, along with superb math and logic skills, and the ability to understand and comply with bank-related regulations and policies. We require a bachelor-level degree in finance, accounting or related business field. Related experience in the financial services field also helpful. Effective writing skills and computer software and internet skills are also essential.

Interested individuals are invited to download an employment application from our website at www.stillmanbank.com. Mail, email or fax the application along with a resume and cover letter outlining your specific qualifications and salary requirements.

Stillman Bank is an equal opportunity employer of women, minorities, protected veterans and individuals with disabilities.
